

haley & jamie

DENVER • May 31
photography by Paige Eden Photography

the ceremony programs
Chocolate-colored ribbon bound the storybook programs and also made it convenient to fasten them to the guest chairs. The booklets featured the couple's custom floral design on the cover.

the reception décor
Brown linens topped the guest tables inside the contemporary Westin Tabor Center, which was filled with a combination of natural and candle light.

their story While eHarmony considered them a match, Jamie Hutting (36 and director of vendor management) wasn't sure that Haley Gallup (29 and a resident physician) would be interested in a second date. They met at the dog park on a hot, sunny day after Haley had been awake for 30 hours. Jamie mistook Haley's exhaustion for disinterest, but was thrilled when they actually met again. Their second date led to a third, and soon they were spending all of their free time together. The couple dated for a year-and-a-half before Jamie proposed. He took Haley out for a romantic dinner and when they got home later, he pretended to drop something. Jamie then got down on one knee and pulled a ring out from under the couch. "I was completely surprised!" said Haley. —CC

the escort cards

Hand-calligraphed escort cards that matched the rest of the floral stationery were displayed around a small tree in the foyer.

the bridal bouquet

Roses, lilies, stephanotis and orchids made up Haley's classic all-white bouquet. For a sentimental touch, she attached her grandmother's locket with baby pictures of her and Jamie inside.

the cocktail hour

Guests sipped on key lime pie martinis—the same cocktail the bride and groom drank the night they got engaged.

the favors

The self-serve candy bar was a big hit with guests. The couple provided personalized take-out boxes so everyone could take home a batch of blue and brown candies. >>

the cake

Haley and Jamie cut a three-tiered cake covered in a chocolate brown floral pattern and topped with a sparkling crystal monogram.

the bridesmaid bouquets

Hydrangeas and freesia were the perfect blooms for the blue wedding. A few white peonies and pale blue satin ribbon rounded out the bridesmaids' bouquets.

the ceremony

Haley and Jamie loved the idea of an outdoor wedding and the Denver Botanic Gardens didn't need any decor. They exchanged vows on a small grassy hill beneath the shade of a tent.

style notes

Haley and Jamie's garden location inspired the custom floral motif used in all of their stationery—even the thank-you cards. They chose an elegant brown-and-blue color palette for their outdoor wedding in the city.

the first dance

Haley and Jamie chose Jack Johnson's "Better Together," as their first dance song. They personalized the tune by taking dance lessons for their own choreographed routine.

the centerpieces

Calla lilies submerged in tall cylindrical vases complemented the modern architecture of the space. Blue hydrangeas and chocolate cosmos surrounded the base of each centerpiece, reflecting the couple's color scheme.

their ingredients

CEREMONY SITE Denver Botanic Gardens, Denver, (720) 865-3500

RECEPTION SITE The Westin Tabor Center, Denver, (303) 572-9100

PHOTOGRAPHY Paige Eden Photography, PaigeEden.com

CONSULTANT Heather Allen, Table 6 Productions, Denver, (303) 956-8566

OFFICIANT Rev. Dr. Gary R. Copeland, Denver, (303) 873-7500

GOWN Marisa, Anna Bé, Denver, (720) 855-1111

VEIL Sara Gabriel, Anna Bé, Denver, (720) 855-1111

RINGS Bride: BlueNile.com; groom: Shane Co., Westminster, (303) 460-8200

JEWELRY Floral hair pins: Sara Gabriel, Anna Bé, Denver, (720) 855-1111

HAIR AND MAKEUP The Parlour, Denver, (303) 296-7490

BRIDESMAID DRESSES Aria Dress, AriaDress.com

FORMALWEAR Calvin Klein, Men's Wearhouse, Denver, (303) 322-1535

STATIONERY Invitations, ceremony programs and escort cards: Tasha Rae Designs, Denver, (303) 881-3388; guest book: AdessoAlbums.com

FLOWERS Newberry Brothers Greenhouse and Florist, Denver, (303) 322-0443

MUSIC A Music Plus Inc, Denver, (303) 426-9990

DANCE LESSONS Ward/Carter Dance Studio, Denver, (303) 433-0721

CAKE Das Meyer Fine Pastry Chalet, Arvada, (303) 425-5616

HONEYMOON Playacar and Playa del Carmen, Mexico